Post Office, AAP Art competition to benefit Malabon Zoo

The Philippine Postal Corporation (Post Office), Art Association of the Philippines Inc. (AAP) and Malabon Zoo signed a Tripartite Memorandum of Agreement to benefit Malabon Zoo that is in dire need of support and sustenance following its closure due to the Covid-19 pandemic health restrictions.

The Post Office and AAP have organized the Art competition to promote the creative expression of the Filipinos and develop their artistic accomplishments at its highest level.

70% of the sale proceeds will go to the artists to generate interest among Filipino artists, and at the same time contribute to this worthy cause by donating 10% of the event's proceeds to Malabon Zoo to help bring relief to the animals.

Manny Tangco, owner of the Malabon Zoo, Aquarium and Botanical Garden or popularly known as Malabon Zoo, welcomed this move by the Post Office and AAP to help in maintaining the Zoo which has become famous for its wild animals, who were named after celebrities, actors, politicians and other personalities.

MALABON ZOO AS BENEFICIARY

The Philippine Postal Corporation (Post Office), Art Association of the Philippines, Inc. (AAP) and Malabon Zoo signed an agreement to donate ten (10%) percent of the proceeds of the "First Philippine Postal Corporation Art Competition 2021" to Malabon Zoo to help bring some relief to the animals during this pandemic. Present at the ceremony are Postmaster General Norman N. Fulgencio, Fidel Sarmiento, President, Art Association of the Philippines Inc. (AAP), and Manny Tangco, President/Founder, Malabon Zoo and Botanical Garden Foundation, Inc.

The Post Office awarded the winners of the recent "First Philippine Postal Corporation Art Competition 2021" in cooperation with the Art Association of the Philippines (AAP), the oldest artist organization in the country which was founded in 1948.

Artist Ranier Angelo Bolivar's winning entry entitled "Pagsibol" won the top prize with P100,000; 2nd-Prize -Emil Jay Gulang's "In Time" with P70,000 cash and 3rd Prize- Siegfried M. Dela Torre's "Jesters Blue" with P50,000 cash. These winners bested more than 300 entries sent by artists from all over the country.

◀ Post Office seals agreement for online payment with DOF, Customs

The Philippine Postal Corporation (Post Office) and the Bureau of Customs (BOC) ink a landmark Memorandum of Agreement (MoA) to provide the customers a more efficient, secure, hassle-free and reliable online payment system of Philippine customs duties and taxes through the Post Office website www.phlpost.gov.ph.

In compliance with Republic Act No. 11032, also known as the Ease of Doing Business and Efficient Government Service Delivery Act of 2018, the said agreement will make the process of clearing and delivery of parcels and other mail matters faster and simpler, benefitting thousands of consumers and Philippine residents who rely on the postal service to send and receive packages from abroad but also boosting the e-commerce industry for the growth of our economy.

Postmaster General Norman Fulgencio and Bureau of Customs Commissioner Rey Leonardo Guerrero signed the agreement coinciding with the 125th Founding Anniversary of the Department of Finance (DOF).

"For the first time, in the 75 years of being a Republic, the Post Office Digital Innovation will enhance the competitiveness of the Post Office in the local and International market", Postmaster General Norman Fulgencio said.

PPO @ PPO: Philippine Post Office and Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra partner for a Christmas concert ▶

Together with the launching of the Christmas stamps, the event, dubbed PPO (Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra) @ PPO (Philippine Post Office), was part of the Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP) outreach program whose objective is to bring music and arts closer to the people.

The Nightingales Bianca Lopez-Aguila and Bernadette Marnauag and young soprano Alexa Isobel Kaufman performed their operatic renditions of various Christmas carols. The orchestra played classics such as the William Tell Overture and the 1970s Manila Sound, under the baton of maestro Herminigildo Ranera. The concert was facilitated by actress, model, and host Issa Litton.

Postmaster General Fulgencio thanked the Office of the President headed by President Rodrigo Roa Duterte and Director Arsenio "Nick" Lizaso, President of the Cultural Center of the Philippines (CCP) and chairperson of the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) for their initiative to feature this memorable event in front of the historic Post Office building.

WHAT'S NEW?

Coffee Friday is a part of the Hatid Malasakit campaign of the Post Office.

Coffee Friday

To promote camaraderie among MCPO and Central Office postal workers, the Office of the Postmaster General (OPMG) started hosting Coffee Friday by Mr. Postman. Every Friday beginning November 19, 2021, employees are treated to unlimited brewed coffee from 8:00am to 5:00 pm at the 3rd Floor Quadrangle Garden.

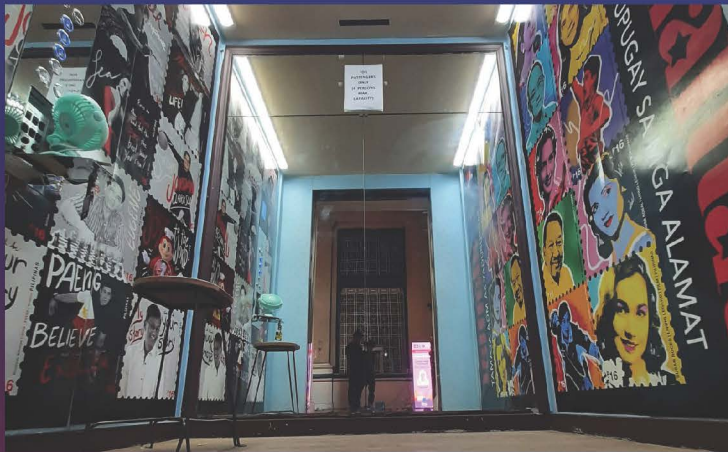

Busy Bee Service activated

The Post Office takes a step towards the right direction with the introduction of Busy Bee in its operational services. Through this innovative system, better and faster communication is expected to improve and enhance the customer experience.

New Lift Installed

As part of its beautification and modernization program of the MCPO, a new elevator was installed at the westside of the iconic building. The new lift became operational since January 7, 2022.

Prior to 2022, only one elevator had been servicing the postal workers at the Central Office. The new elevator also displays the latest postal products, like stamp issuances.

Post Office rolls out Postal Caravan in Malacañang's One-Stop Shop

The Post Office assisted Malacañang employees in applying for the highly sophisticated first-of-its kind Postal Card. The new and modern Postal Card is power-packed with financial features and promises to bring more value and benefits to PID holders, customers and agencies who have given trust to the ID.

With its advanced features, the POSTAL CARD is more modern, more reliable and is definitely a must-have for every Filipino!

The Postal Caravan in Malacañang's One-Stop Shop is a first of many more Postal Card Caravans to come.

The Post Office's Postal Card joins the One-Stop Shop Caravan of Malacañang Palace for their employees last May 30-31, 2022 and June 21-22, 2022.

Hang-out: Quadrangle Garden

In line with Mr. Postman's drive to create a more conducive environment for its postal workers, the 3rd Floor Quadrangle has undergone a facelift to provide an al fresco venue for meetings or simply to hang out in.

Institutional Videos launched

To promote its Hatid Malasakit campaign across all post offices nationwide, the Manila Central Post Office (MCPO) and Central Office (CO) under the Office of the Postmaster General initiated the launch of its new institutional video, featuring the reforms and changes that have been effected with the assumption to office of Postmaster General and CEO Norman N. Fulgencio. Along with this, a Lupang Hinirang video showcasing the hardworking postal employees of MCPO was produced.

The new Post Office institutional videos were shot on location at the Manila Central Post Office Building and at the Central Mail Exchange Center in Pasay City.
